++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Largely dry, but cloudy for most.

This Evening and Tonight:
Clearer to start but cloud thickening from the north overnight, and spreading southwestwards into Kent and Sussex. Mostly dry, but perhaps the odd spot of drizzle by dawn, and any clear spells in the far south seeing possible mist patches. Minimum temperature 9 deg C (48 deg F).

Friday:
Another cloudy start for many, before brighter conditions and sunny spells develop into the afternoon. Maximum temperature 22 deg C (72 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Cloudy but mostly dry start Saturday, with sunny spells developing. Winds strengthening Sunday, staying dry with warm sunny spells. Lower confidence Monday, but likely dry with some warm sunny spells.
